However, it is helpful for us to be aware of your health conditions or allergies, although we cannot take responsibility for them. Whenever possible, we will ask for vegetarian meals if requested. Please be aware that in certain circumstances, such as the barbecue and crawfish boil on the Cajun trip, there are no alternatives available and you will need to provide alternate food yourself.

RESPONSIBILITY: The Agent, Tour Operators and their representatives give notice that all tickets and coupons are issued by them and all arrangements for transportation and hotel accommodations, etc. are made by them upon the express condition that they shall not be liable for any injury, loss, damage, accident, delay or irregularity that may be occasioned either by reason of defect in any vehicle or through the acts or default of any company or persons engaged in conveying the passenger. Such conveying, etc. is subject to the laws of the country where provided.

The Agent and its representatives accept no responsibility for losses or additional expenses due to delays or changes in service which may be caused by illness, weather, strikes, declared or undeclared war, quarantine or other causes. Such losses or expenses must be borne by the passenger. The right is reserved to amend or revise the routes or schedules listed in the itineraries, or to cancel any portion or all of the tour.

CAJUN COUNTRY TOUR: Inherent to enjoying the Cajun trip, there are certain health and safety risks. This is part of the enjoyment and excitement of this type of adventure travel. We will be visiting private homes, traveling on privately owned boats and by other means of transportation. We may come into contact with local wildlife, including alligators. We will be eating home cooked foods and will get a chance to go crawfishing and swimming in unknown waters with unknown creatures and insects.

By signing both below and on the Louisiana Music Tour 2014 Booking Form, you thereby acknowledge that you are voluntarily participating in these activities and agree to take full responsibility for your participation. By signing, you are aware of the potential hazards and agree not to hold Festival Tours International or any of the people we meet or visit in Louisiana responsible should illness, injury, death, property loss or damage occur.
